Amaury Urena v. City of New York, et al.,
22 Civ. 1189 (JHR) (KHP)

Your Honor:

I represent defendants the City of New York, Captain Pines, and Captain Clarke in the above-referenced matter. Defendants in the two above-referenced matters respectfully request that the Court adjourn the November 7, 2023 conference to a later date convenient for the Court. This is Defendants' first such request. Defendants have been unable to reach Plaintiff to discuss this letter motion.

On October 12, 2023, the Court held a joint case management conference for both cases. (See Docket Entry Dated October 12, 2023). Plaintiff did not appear. Accordingly, the Court rescheduled the conference for November 7, 2023. (See ECF No. 34).

However, November 7, 2023 is a New York City Law Department holiday and defense counsel in the above-referenced cases will both be out of the office. As such, Defendants respectfully request that the Court adjourn the conference to a later date convenient to the Court. For the Court's convenience, Defendants are available for a telephone conference after 2:00 p.m. on November 14, 2023, any time after 1:00 p.m. on November 15, or any time on November 17, 2023.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
